

Just Because – Johnnie Taylor

Just because I raise a little sand
I might be tired, lady, try to understand
That doesn't mean that you've done something wrong
(Just because)

And just because when we have a little fight
And I walk out the door and stay gone all night
It doesn't mean that I won't be coming home
(Just because) Oh-oh-oh

I love you (just because)
I love you (just because)
What else can I do or say? (Just because)
Whoa, honey, I love (just because) I love you
Whoa, I love you (just because)
What would it take to make you want to stay?

Just because when sometime you wanna make love
Girl, I tell you not tonight, try to understand
I work hard all day, darling, I'm doing the best that I can (Just because) Whoa, yeah

But if you wanna go, it's up to you
But I can tell you right now my whole world is gonna be misty blue
I'm begging you, please
Please, please, please stay (just because)
Honey, don't you hear me?

I love you (just because)
Oh, I love you (just because)
What else can I do or say? (Just because)
I love you (just because)
Whoa, I love you, I love you (just because)

I love only you (I love you)
What would it take to make you want to stay?
(Just because)

Whoa, I love you, I love you (just because)
Woo-oooh-oooh, oooh
